

mercEmail

"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

Ten Reasons Why I'll Never Wash

- My parents always forced me to wash when I was little.
- People who wash are hypocrites and think that they're cleaner than everyone else.
- There are so many different brands of soap, I'd never know which one to use.
- I used to wash, but it was the same thing every time and I got bored with it, so I quit washing.
- None of my friends wash.
- Washing is a scam that is perpetuated on people by soap companies who are just trying to make money.
- I'm still young. When I get older and need it more, I'll start washing.
- I'm so busy I can't find the time to wash.
- I know some people who are regular washers, and they once hurt my feelings, so I'm not going to wash anymore.
- It's not like I've totally quit washing, I still wash on special occasions - like Christmas and Easter.

Now, would you like to hear ten thread-bare excuses why some people don't go to church?

- See #1 above.
- See #2 above.
- See #3 above.
- See #4 above.
- See #5 above.
- See #6 above.
- See #7 above.
- See #8 above.
- See #9 above.
- See#10 above.

Friends, remember: "Keeping clean between the ears is more important than keeping clean behind the ears."