

mercEmail

"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

Sex Education

by Steve Higginbotham

Coleen Kelly Mast, a former school teacher wrote the following which I believe is worth considering. She said:

"When teens are taught contraception in the classroom, they are led to believe that this is a legitimate option for them. We don't instruct in Driver's Education on 'how to speed without getting caught,' or 'how to get traffic tickets fixed.' Since sex outside of marriage is not healthy for the teens in our classes, why offer them advice on 'how to do it?' What matters is not knowledge of sex, but values, one's sense of what is right or wrong."

Now doesn't that make sense to you? It sure does to me. When sex is presented to our children as something that is morally indifferent, someone is going to be hurt. The kind of sex education we need today is the kind that is taught in the Bible. Sexual activity is something that is reserved for a man and a woman within marriage.

"Marriage is honorable among all and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers, God will judge" (Hebrews 13:4).