"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

Thanksgiving

by Steve Higginbotham

As we approach Thanksgiving, I'm reminded of what the late Matthew Henry once wrote in his daily journal as he reflected upon being robbed. Here are his words:

"Let me be thankful. First, I was never robbed before. Second, although they took my purse, they didn't take my life. Third, although they took my all, it was not much. Fourth, let me be thankful because it was I who was robbed and not I who did the robbing."

If you can't find something for which to be thankful, you're not looking hard enough!
