

mercEmail

"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

The Flea & The Elephant

by Steve Higginbotham

The story is told of a flea and an elephant who walked side by side across a bridge. After reaching the other side of the bridge, the flea proudly said to the elephant, "Man! we sure did shake that bridge, didn't we!"

This little story can be somewhat of a reflection of our attitudes and actions. For instance, if your work in your local church were scrutinized, would you be more like the flea or the elephant?